

ESTATE PLANNING AND LEGACY GIVING

GIFTS OF RRSPS AND RRIFs

Benefits of Donating RRSPs and RRIFs

Tax advantages. By designating Chai Lifeline Canada as the beneficiary, your estate may receive significant tax benefits.

Simple process. Easily designate Chai Lifeline Canada as the beneficiary of your RRSPs or RRIFs.

Powerful impact. Your donation helps provide critical services to children and families in need.

How It Works

Name Chai Lifeline Canada as the beneficiary. Designate Chai Lifeline Canada as the beneficiary of your RRSPs or RRIFs.

Notify your financial institution. Inform your RRSP or RRIF plan provider of your decision.

Provide your estate with tax benefits. Upon your passing, the remaining funds will be transferred to Chai Lifeline Canada, and your estate may benefit from a tax receipt for the donation.

Three simple steps to donate your RRSPs or RRIFs

1. Consult your financial advisor. Ensure this type of gift aligns with your financial and estate plans.
2. Contact your plan provider. Inform them of your intention to designate Chai Lifeline Canada as the beneficiary.
3. Complete the necessary forms. Fill out the required forms from your financial institution to finalize the donation.
